- Not formulated in accordance with external regulations
- Formulated in accordance with external regulations

Formulation unit: Secretariat

Approved Level: Board of Directors

Article 1: Basis for the Establishment of the Charter

To strengthen the management of sustainable development, in accordance with Article 17-2 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, Article 35-1 of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, and Article 8 of the Company's Sustainable Development Guidelines, the Sustainable Development Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the Committee") Organizational Charter (hereinafter referred to as "the Charter") of the Company is hereby established to be followed.

Article 2: Scope to be Applied

Unless otherwise specified in laws or the Company's Articles of Incorporation, matters concerning the composition, number, term of office, powers, rules of procedure for meetings, and resources to be provided by the Company when exercising its powers, as well as other relevant matters of the Committee shall follow the Charter.

Article 3: Composition, Number of members, and Term of the Committee

The members of the Committee shall be nominated by the Chair of the Company and appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company. The members may be directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, with a minimum total number of three members, including at least one independent director of the Company.

The Committee shall elect one member as the convener to chair the meetings. The term of office for Committee members shall be consistent with the Board of Directors of the Company. If a director of the Company or its subsidiary serving as a Committee member is not reappointed, dismissed, or resigns upon the expiration of the term, the Committee membership shall be automatically terminated.

If the number of Committee members falls below the requirement stated in the first paragraph, the Board of Directors of the Company shall appoint additional members to fulfill the requirement.

Article 4: Duties of the Committee

In accordance with the authorization of the Board of Directors, the Committee shall exercise the due care of good administrators and faithfully perform the following duties:

- I. Review the establishment and amendment of the Company's sustainable development policies, systems, and short, medium, and long-term implementation plans.
- II. Review and approve the annual work plan for sustainable development.
- III. Review, monitor, and revise the implementation effectiveness of the annual work plan for sustainable development.
- IV. Supervise the disclosure of sustainable information and approve the sustainability report.
- V. Supervise the execution of business activities related to the Company's Sustainable Development Guidelines or other sustainable development tasks approved by the Board of Directors.

The matters stated in clause I of the preceding paragraph shall be proceeded to the Company's Board of Directors for approval. The remaining matters shall be reported to the Board of Directors.

Article 5: Composition and Powers of the Promoting and Implementing Units

The Company establishes a Sustainability Office as a dedicated unit for sustainable development, which assists the Committee in implementing various initiatives. A senior executive is appointed as the Chief Sustainability Officer to ensure the promotion of sustainable related work within the Company.

The Chief Sustainability Officer, based on the needs of sustainable development initiatives, forms cross departmental teams to execute sustainable development affairs. Each team is led by a team leader responsible for overseeing the execution of team tasks. The team leaders are recommended by the Chief Sustainability Officer from the management departments of the Company and its subsidiaries and appointed by the convener of the Committee. The team members are selected by their respective team leaders from the personnel within the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Sustainability Office covers the following task groups and reports the implementation of sustainable development to the Committee:

- I. Corporate Governance Team: Responsible for ethical business operations, compliance with laws and regulations, risk management and internal control, formulation of reasonable executive compensation policies, and stakeholder communication mechanisms.
- II. Customer Relations Team: Responsible for innovative development of sustainable financial products and services, adherence to responsible finance-related international standards, and implementation of responsible marketing and protection of customer rights and interests.
- III. Employee Welfare Team: Responsible for human rights management policies and procedures, compliance with human rights-related laws and international standards, formulation of reasonable employee compensation policies and reward systems, establishment of a safe and healthy workplace environment, establishment of employee communication channels, and provision of a conducive environment for employee career development.
- IV. Environmental Protection Team: Responsible for environmental management systems, compliance with environmental regulations and international standards, improvement of energy efficiency, promotion of green operations, and strengthening of sustainable supply chain management.
- V. Social Involvement Team: Combining core financial competencies with various social engagement activities, deepening local operations and community care, and promoting community development.

The cross-departmental teams execute the tasks mentioned above, consolidate implementation plans or other sustainability-related matters, and report the results to the Sustainability Office or the Committee.

Article 6: Meeting Convening and Notification

The Committee shall be convened at least twice a year and may be called at any time when needed.
